

Dawn Marie Krivoshik Hartman

15th December 1984 ó 27th May 2016

Dawn Marie Krivoshik Hartman, of Ringoes, NJ, died on Friday, May 27, 2016 at her home.

Born in Lansdale, PA, December 15, 1984, daughter of David Peter and Cindy Sousa Krivoshik of East Amwell Township, NJ, Dawn had resided in Hunterdon County most of her life.

A 2003 graduate of Hunterdon Central Regional High School, Flemington, NJ, she was a Cosmetologist, working with various salons in the county, most recently The Haircutters, Clinton, NJ.

Above everything in Dawn's life, the most important thing was being a loving and caring mom to Ashley and Jacob Hartman. She also loved being an aunt to Braylon. The many family moments are what made Dawn's life so special and fulfilling.

Surviving, in addition to her two children and her parents, are two sisters; Paula Diane Woods and her husband, Brandon; and Danielle Natasha Krivoshik and her longtime companion, Mason Nichol; a brother, Peter David Krivoshik and his longtime companion, Claudia Farneski; her paternal grandmother, Elizabeth E. (Baba) Krivoshik; her maternal grandmother, Margaret C. Sousa; her aunt Betsy and uncle Glenn Hammill; her niece Jaclyn and nephew Ben; her uncle Joe Sousa; her nephew, Braylon Woods; several loving aunts, uncles, and cousins; and her three cats, Gabby, Benson and Riley.

She was preceded in death by her younger sister, Laura Amy Krivoshik in 2010 as well as by her paternal grandfather, Peter Enoch Krivoshik in 1979 and her uncle, Paul Sousa in 1974.

A Celebration of Life service will be at the Wright & Ford Family Funeral Home, interment will be private.

Memorial donations may be made in her name to:

"Out of the Darkness Run", AFSP, 120 Wall Street, 29th Floor, New York, NY 10005.
